A brief description of the knowledge/expertise desired: *

A DEI co-chair should have an understanding of the scope and purpose of the DEI committee. They should be committed to advancing DEI goals at Norco College and contributing to the professional growth of their colleagues in this area. DEI co-chairs should also have a basic understanding of the institution-wide equity initiatives in order to understand DEI's role in supporting and in some cases leading those efforts. Claudia Figueroa has volunteered to serve as classified co-chair. The committee has expressed support for Claudia to serve in this role.

The time commitment (including hours, weekly/monthly, start and end date for project teams): *

1 hour a month of meeting; likely an additional 1-2 hours of meeting planning; depending on the number of events/activities sponsored by DEI, availability to attend and support monthly DEI events (estimated 2-3 hours a month)
